

To be a subject star in English you need to meet at least 12 out of the following list

1. Engages thoughtfully in discussion and contributes within the classroom setting
2. Be a critical thinker who is able to draw on knowledge of world and literary texts
3. Be an empathetic thinker and consider others' perspectives and viewpoints
4. Create and keep detailed annotations and notes on texts
5. Practise creative and transactional writing in my spare time
6. Fully engage with, and submit, homework and revision tasks set by their teacher
7. Be a willing participant in debate, class discussion and other types of oracy based activities
8. Practise flipped learning, embedding and going over learning in depth
9. Supports the learning environment – helps those who might struggle for more insightful and critical ideas
10. Is happy to share work as an example or to model skills in the classroom
11. Asks meaningful questions; listens carefully and responds appropriately to others' ideas and opinions
12. Attempts a range of stretch activities
13. Reads a range of fiction and non-fiction texts
14. Actively develop their vocabulary; learns new words each week
15. Actively helps the teacher to lead learning in lessons

Current Stars

Lola	Rachael C
Eliza	Jamie H
Kayla	Juliette
Naomi	Kemane
Priscilla	Stevie E
Jayson	Victoria J
Felix R	Riley B
Ivana
Ryan R
Khadija
Florence D
Surafel
Vy
Joseph B
Elliot W
Lorelei S
Ria
Henry F
Joshua E

To be a subject star in Science you need to meet at least 12 out of the following list

1. Currently making outstanding progress
2. Shows creativity in tasks tackled
3. Demonstrates keen scientific literacy, oracy and numeracy
4. Attempts most challenge activities
5. Supports the learning environment – helps those who might be stuck and happy to share work as an example
6. Demonstrates problem solving and analytical skills
7. Shows an ability to work independently and complete tasks
8. Shows an ability to link in-class Science concepts to real- world applications
9. Demonstrate curiosity about the science behind everyday observations
10. Show a love for learning
11. Tackles challenging tasks and shows resilience in completing them
12. Demonstrates good practical skills including leading group work and managing of practical equipment
13. Reflect on their own progress
14. Complete whole class feedback to an exceptional standard
15. Plan and design investigations and modify current investigations when faced with new problems

Current Stars

Harris
Kate L
Kayshia
Lola
Fred H
Delina
Lowell
Ella K
Danny L
Lachlan T
Dorrinda
Daniela
Zaquinaula

To be a subject star in Maths you need to meet at least 12 out of the following list

1. Display mathematical thinking and have a keen awareness for quantitative information in the world around them.
2. Grasp mathematical concepts and strategies quickly
3. Able to apply their knowledge in solving problems.
4. Think logically and symbolically about abstract relationships.
5. Good retention of Maths content
6. Able to narrate their learning
7. Reason analytically, deductively, and inductively.
8. Shows considerable interest in and enthusiasm for the subject
9. Always chase the deeper insights and reasons that justifies each step of a solution
10. Able to communicate, and justify mathematical concepts
11. Formulate probing mathematical questions that extends their knowledge
12. Persevere in their search for solutions to complex tasks.
13. Solve problems with multiple and/or alternative solutions.
14. Take risks with mathematical concepts and strategies.
15. Apply a more extensive and in-depth knowledge of a variety of mathematical topics.

Current Stars

To be a subject star in Geography you need to meet at least 12 out of the following list:

1. Currently making outstanding progress
2. Usually arrive on time, ready to learn, with a positive learning attitude
3. Most homework is submitted
4. Attempts most stretch activities
5. Supports the learning environment – helps those who might be stuck and happy to share work as an example
6. Shows good insight into how geographical concepts are linked
7. Have exceptional curiosity and are constantly intrigued by the workings of their own environment
8. Ask searching questions
9. Possess an extensive general knowledge about the world
10. Set very high personal standards – perfectionists
11. Persists in completing activities
12. Have advanced understanding and use of geographical terminology
13. Reflect on their own progress
14. Understand and can explain geographical interrelationships
15. Critically analyse information and creatively to draw conclusions

Current Stars

Jojo
Lara Z
Nicholas G
Maeva
Joseph B
Blessing
Isobel A
Khadija
Joe Br
Florence D
Surafel
Sidney Br
Michael K
Alejandro
Victoria N
Kevin T

Ivana
Stevie E
Kemanee
Jiang
Juliette R
Kate L

To be a subject star in History you need to meet at least 9 out of the following list

1. Construct coherent and well evidenced arguments.
2. Show a strong chronological knowledge.
3. Support source analysis with your knowledge
4. To be able to explain why different types of sources are useful to historians.
5. Show a wider interest in history.
6. To have and demonstrate strategies to tackle complex tasks.
7. To make links and comparisons between different times and places.
8. Make outstanding progress.
9. Hand in Homework consistently.
10. Be on time to lessons.
11. To use oracy skills to share ideas.
12. Demonstrate effective retrieval strategies.

Current Stars

Blessing	Joseph B
Alva	Reanna
Ivan	Helen N
Daphne	Jamie H
Johann	Lucia AC
Rose	Juliette R
Ryan	Victoria JN
Olara	Maeva
Jayson S	Joanne K
Seriah	Ella K
Delina	Leo FK
Lara	Joe Br
Takiya
Habib
Bo Allison

To be a subject star in Ethics and Sociology you need to meet at least 9 out of the following list

1. Act on feedback to improve/ redraft your work.
2. Use previous feedback to develop future work.
3. Work independently during 'struggle time'
4. Use critical thinking to evaluate sociological, political, religious, and philosophical\ ideas
5. Make connections between different topics and apply relevant knowledge.
6. Make positive verbal contributions to class discussions
7. High level of initiative be being ready for learning and on task behaviour
8. Ability to relate subject content to contemporary examples
9. Ability to justify your own point of view – why do you think this way?
10. Use of self and peer assessment to take more responsibility and accountability during written or oral tasks.
11. To use and explain sociological, philosophical, political, or religious key concepts and ideas confidently throughout your work.

Current Stars

Olara
Ivana
Ariana
Cerys
Skye
Sophie PM
Raya
Asosa
Beatrice KO'B
Ria
Aquila
Kareem
Emre K
Elsiha K
Holly C
Chelsea C

To be a subject star in Drama you need to meet at least 8 out of the following list:

1. Is the creator of ideas for group performances.
2. Usually acts as the group's director.
3. Is a confident performer.
4. Is passionate about the subject.
5. Is keen to be involved in school productions, either as an actor or part of the backstage crew.
6. Can articulately analyse and evaluate the work of others.
7. Demonstrates strong understanding during practical performance work.
8. Supports the learning environment by modelling best practice.
9. Has a positive learning attitude that enriches the drama space.
10. Has a keen interest in the theatre.

Current Stars

Arthur BK

Harold

Milo D

Leo FK

Dorinda K

Lisa H

Sidney Br

Raul

James C

Nicholas G

Ryan E

Emanuella

Henri F

Miles W

Ella K

Olara

Micha R

Lara Z

Micah

Fred H

Ella S

To be a subject star in Languages you need to meet at least 12 out of the following list

1. Arrives on time and fully equipped to every lesson.
2. Actively helps their classmates when they need support.
3. Participates fully in lesson activities.
4. Keeps their exercise book organised and well presented.
5. Completes all home learning on time and asks for help when unsure.
6. Learns from their mistakes, knowing that making them is part of learning.
7. Perseveres and stays focused when the work is challenging.
8. Pushes self to do more than the minimum.
9. Improves work by responding to feedback and asking questions to deepen understanding.
10. Catches up on missed learning by asking classmates/teachers.
11. Asks questions when they are unsure or would like to know more.
12. Makes links between new topics and prior learning.
13. Is curious about the culture, people and geography of the countries where the language is spoken.
14. Furthers their learning by watching TV shows or movies, listening to music and reading in the target language.
15. Uses websites and apps outside of lessons to further their learning.
16. Tries their best to communicate in the target language, including around the school to greet others.
17. Listens carefully to their teacher and classmates' pronunciation to improve their own.
18. Uses subject specific language when discussing grammar or other language concepts.

Current Stars

Ivana
Alejandro M
Johann
Chante
Eliza B
Alejandro R
Jojo
Ruwaida
Beatrice KO'B
Isobel A
Asosa
Aquila
Jessica LFdM
Muhammad H
Jhostin

To be a subject star in Music you need to meet at least 8 out of the following list

1. Currently making outstanding progress
2. Usually arrive on time, ready to learn, with a positive learning attitude
3. Show a high skill level on first study instrument.
4. Attend one of the music clubs.
5. Supports the learning environment, help pupils who don't play instruments in the lesson.
6. Shows a high level on compositional skills and creativity.
7. Attends a project with one of our external professional partnerships.
8. Ask searching questions and look to develop musical knowledge.
9. Listens to music across wide ranging genres with the ability to analyse using appropriate terminology.
10. Set very high personal standards – perfectionists

Current Stars

To be a subject star in Art you need to meet at least 8 out of the following list

1. Be an independent learner and an excellent collaborator
2. Think creatively and challenge convention
3. Take risks and embrace mistakes
4. Show excellent analytical and critical understanding when talking about artwork or art history
5. Ask high order questions
6. Produce high quality and original artworks
7. Have exceptional curiosity and are constantly intrigued by artworks and the creative process
8. Adapt quickly to working with new materials and artistic processes
9. Have advanced understanding and use of art terminology
10. Reflect on their own progress

Current Stars

To be a subject star in PE you need to meet at least 8 out of the following list

1. Consistently displaying good sportsmanship, e.g. respecting referees and opponents during competitive games.
2. Full Deptford Green P.E. every single lesson.
3. Have the confidence to take on leadership roles in lessons, e.g. warm-ups and coaching activities.
4. Physically competent across a range of sporting activities.
5. Attend an extracurricular sports club on 6+ occasions or represent a school sports team
6. Demonstrate an understanding of tactics and strategies in order to outwit opponents.
7. Answer higher order questions about theoretical concepts in Physical Education e.g. what components of fitness are being used when catching a tennis ball.
8. To be able to perform key skills consistently well in competitive game situations.
9. Always put in their best efforts into an activity, e.g. trying their hardest even if their team is losing.
10. Identify which training methods could improve performance for a certain activity or components of fitness, e.g. continuous training to improve long distance running.

Current Stars

Maeva
Ella K
Daniele RG
Diamond
Felix R
Katia
Sophie PM
Joe Br
Luca H
Lorelei S
Sydney S
Ky-Mani

To be a subject star in Film Studies you need to meet at least 10 out of the following list

1. Currently making outstanding progress
2. Usually arrive on time, ready to learn, with a positive learning attitude
3. Most homework is submitted
4. Attempts most stretch activities
5. Supports the learning environment – helps those who might be stuck, happy to share work as an example
6. Asks searching questions
7. The ability to effectively articulate an opinion.
8. Watches films extensively across many genres and time periods, exploring the work of many different film directors
9. Have advanced understanding and use of film terminology
10. Reflect on their own progress
11. Analyse films critically and creatively to draw conclusions
12. Has an inquisitive mind considering the deeper social, political and economic contexts of films.

Current Stars

Lydia
Oliver C
William G

